JOHN PRINTING.—We are making some handsome additions to our material and are determined to turn out work that will please our patrons. If our business men desire to see the papers in our midst prosper, they should give them any job printing they need, thereby enabling them to turn out good papers and good work.

GERONIMO ALWELL has withdrawn from the race for Mayor.

The Public Schools will re-open next Monday.

W. H. HIGGINS announces himself a candidate in Fourth ward to-day.

See advertisement of Southern Hotel for rent.

We are indebted to our Congressman, Hon. J. F. House, for congressional documents.

DR. B. F. MOODY is the representative elect from this county to the State Grange. An excellent selection.

On our first page may be found an article on Finance, &c., a letter from Florida, and "Chit Chat," by Hilda.

BOB. DORTCH, a colored barber, formerly of this city, but lately of Edgefield, died in that city on the 7th inst.

New subscribers, with the cash, are coming in every day. Continue your favors, friends, they are highly appreciated.

FATHER HYACINTH, it is said, intends to reside in the United States, and is to be made pastor of a church in Boston.

We are truly glad to learn that our esteemed friend and neighbor, H. P. Dorris, is rapidly improving, with fair prospects of being restored to health.

To build and to advertise when times are hardest, is the leading maxim of a leading man in this country. That man knows a thing or two.

DR. HOLLAND says: "The only way to cure drunkenness is to cease producing it. The only way to get rid of drunkards is to stop raising them."

REV. J. H. GOLD has removed to the city and located near Greenwood Avenue. We welcome him as a neighbor.

Up to this writing, 12th, we have had no ice spell worth a cent. We fear our ice-houses will remain empty for another summer.

PETER ONKAL, Clerk and Commissioner, advertises two or three tracts of land for sale at the Court-house, on the 25th inst.

L. STRAUS of Los Angeles, Cal., will please accept our thanks for late papers. The papers of his city are neatly printed and ably conducted.

The ghost affair, in our city, about which so much has been said, created quite a sensation. As we are no believers in ghosts we dismiss the subject.

The Hopkinsville Conservative has changed its name to Democrat, and will, in future, discard the patent outside and print their paper at home. Success to it.

COL. J. E. BAILEY, of this city, has been appointed by Governor Porter, Special Judge of the Supreme Court to act during the illness of Chief Justice A. O. P. Nicholson.

COL. LEN. G. FAXON, of Paducah, is in Frankfort, Ky., in attendance upon the legislature. Suppose he has some aspirations to become U. S. Senator.

A lady was in the city, a few days ago, enquiring for John Smith. We learn she could not find him. Strained—it appears to us that we have heard of this name before.

COW FOR SALE.—L. H. Smith has a fine cow and calf for sale. He makes a pound of butter per day from her milk. Apply to him, or to this office.

We have disposed of the new Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine which was advertised for sale. We now have another, of the same make, complete and new, never used, to sell upon accommodating terms.

P. ONKAL, clerk and commissioner, will sell some valuable property, mostly town lots, in New Providence, to-day, the property of Trahern & Garrett. Sold for division among the heirs.

The card of Harrison & Shelby may be found in our advertising columns. This is an established, reliable house, so well known to tobacco planters that it is unnecessary to say more than to direct attention to their card.

RICE, BROADBENT & CO., wholesale and retail dealers in dry goods, No. 8 Franklin street, have a new advertisement in to-day's paper. They have a large and elegant stock, and will dispose of it at lowest rates.

CAPT. J. A. WAGGENER came all the way from Cincinnati to officiate as groomsmen at the marriage of Mr. R. H. RANKINS and LIZZIE KIMBROUGH, near Hadesville, Ky., last Tuesday. We hope all concerned had, and will continue to enjoy, a happy time.

We are pleased to learn, through some of our exchanges, that the Patrons are initiating important reforms and among them: Limitation of the powers of the higher Granges, reduction of dues and fees, and the return to members of any dangerous surplus, simplifying the ritual and last, though not least, to abolish the Senate, or seventh degree of Ceres, which is only a conclusive of ambitious sharpers eager to manipulate the large surplus which ought never to be permitted to accumulate. Those aristocratic Patrons—interlopers at best—are nothing about the development of agriculture, and less about the material, intellectual and moral improvement of the farmers, and all they seek, in that higher degree, is the power to wield that large surplus so unwisely permitted to accumulate. They mean embezzlement, and self-aggrandizement, and the sooner the Granges throw them overboard the better it will be for every interest connected with the Order. If, as is reported, the higher degrees have appropriated $18,000,000 to objects supposed to be beneficial to the Order at large, no other proof is wanting of the dangerous surplus disposed of, nor of the dangerous power conferred on those who exercise such right of disposal. We do not claim to be posted on this subject, still there can be no propriety in our calling attention to the published statement we have seen, and advising the Grangers to see the needed reforms are speedily consummated unless, as seems the case in some localities, all interest in the Order is lost.

It is not necessary to remind our fellow-citizens that the election of Mayor and Aldermen comes off to-day, but it may not be amiss to remind some of them, that too much zeal and undue excitement do not promote the ends of wisdom and justice, but do much to defeat both. Men who act from honest conviction are apt to be cool and deliberate, as well as slow to impeach the motives of others. There is no good reason why the friends of one candidate should come in angry conflict with those of another, and if all would look upon the act of voting as the discharge of a sacred duty and approach the ballot box in a corresponding temper, harmony would characterize the occasion and all would retire at right with a pleasing consciousness that they have done their duty as becomes good citizens.

BLOCH BROS. are preparing to extend their building, in which they keep their wholesale department, back as far as their retail room extends. They find that their wholesale trade is increasing to such an extent as to demand it, and they have the pluck and enterprise to keep pace with trade and the times. Such men whether they win success or not, will do more for their city than they deserve it.

THREE names sent by us, to the Courier-Journal drawing, received prices: J. D. Robins, silver-plated and crystal pickle jar, $7; J. A. Keese, silver-plated teaspoons, $2.50; Bryant Whitfield, silver-plated fruit knife, $2.50. All the names we sent will get the full worth of their money in a good paper.

KEESE & NORTINGTON, successors to B. O. Keese & Co., have an advertisement in this issue. Mike and Will are as clever as men get to be and they keep as good a stock of groceries as can be found in the city, which they sell at as low prices as they can be bought anywhere.

DIAMONDS.—From a Kansas City paper we learn that Mrs. Frank Barum, of that city, wife of Frank Barum, formerly of this place, was the recipient of a handsome set of diamonds valued at $2,500, a present from her brother, Dr. Edson Sammis, of Ecuador, South America.

LOUIS H. JONES, who has been in the store of V. L. Williams for the past two years, has removed to Paducah, Ky., to go into the tobacco business at that place. Mr. J. is a young gentleman of first-class business qualifications, and we recommend him to the citizens of this place.

V. L. WILLIAMS, the boot and shoe man, has a new advertisement on our first page. He intends to offer special inducements to the public to trade with him this year, and to that end will keep a full stock at low prices. Call and see him.

J. M. CARSEY, SON & CO., of the Capital Warehouse, Nashville, sold 77 hhdls and 14 boxes of tobacco, for the week ending Jan. 6, at prices ranging from $2.30 to $11.75. In this sale was tobacco from twelve counties in Tennessee and two in Kentucky.

PREPARATIONS are being made, upon a large scale, for Mardi Gras, February 23, in all important cities. Memphis papers say their will surpass any ever witnessed in America. Our folks are determined not to be behind hand, and are at work arranging for it.

The second quarterly meeting for New Providence and Bethel Station will be held at Bethel Church, on the Hopkinsville Turnpike, Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 22 and 23. The officials are respectfully requested to be present.

P. G. JOHNSON, C. & M., has a number of advertisements in this issue, of lands for sale. The first sale takes place Jan. 28, the second, Jan. 29, and the third Feb. 12. Several valuable pieces of property are advertised. Sales at the Court-house.

JOHN W. FAXON, of this city drew a gold pen, worth $3, in the Courier-Journal drawing. W. A. Jackson, Esq., also drew a gold pen of some value. Both these gentlemen know how to use them.

The first leap-year party of the season, in this city, was held at the Johnson house on Second street. It was a grand success.

The Essay, by N. L. Whitfield, and the poetical effusion "Leap-year," are necessarily laid over until next week.

CAPT. WM. VILLINES, of Cross Plains, Tenn., died, suddenly, of paralysis, last Sunday.

For the year 1875 one hundred and seventeen patents were issued to Tennesseans.

CONCERT AT FEMALE ACADEMY.—On Friday, 21st inst., a grand vocal and instrumental concert will take place at the Female Academy, which, with the rich and varied programme and the full preparation made by those who are to participate in it, promises to be an unusually interesting affair. Miss Ella Hall, a lady of rare musical accomplishments, and several young ladies of the Academy who possess great musical talent, will be assisted by Dr. D. F. Wright and Mr. H. A. Jackson, in the execution of the programme. The proceeds are to be applied towards adorning the parlor of the Academy. It is to be hoped that our citizens will give them a hearty greeting to enable them to carry out their laudable intention. Remember the date, Friday, 21st inst., and be sure to attend.

At a regular meeting of Clarksville Hook and Ladder Company, held last Thursday night, the following officers were elected:

J. B. Reynolds,
F. G. Williams, Captain.
S. B. Fugate, 1st Ladder Director.

TAXES.—R. D. Moseley, State and County Tax Collector, will commence the collection of taxes for the year 1875 next week. There has heretofore been a great deal of complaint of Collectors for levying on real estate instead of on personal property, and he intends, as soon as the law justifies him to begin levying upon personal property for all unpaid taxes. The taxes are to be collected under the law of 1873, and must be paid by the first day of June next. He means just what he says, and all who do not want to pay costs or have trouble will do well to pay their taxes at once.

We would ask how many of the parents and guardians of our city, know where their sons and wards are at any given hour of the night? We fear, from all we can learn, that the male portion of the rising generation is entering upon a career which can end only in crime and disgrace. There are many honorable exceptions, but the number is fearful of those who, under the shades of night, are treading upon the verge of ruin. They begin in sport, but the end is often disgraceful and sometimes tragic.

A CORRESPONDENT at Cumberland Furnace, Tenn., informs us of a daring robbery that occurred in Charlotte on the 6th inst. The dry goods store of Mr. William Collier was entered and robbed of about $300 dollars worth of goods. The robbers are supposed to be escaped convicts, named Smith and Pryor. They were last seen, by pursuing parties, near Betty's Town. They were shot at near there, and it is thought one of them was hit. They stole a canoe at the last named place and came down the river. Our police should keep a sharp look out for them.

Our energetic representative in Congress, Hon. J. F. House, introduced bills making an appropriation for the purchase of additional ground for the Custom-house at Nashville, and to continue the improvement of the Cumberland river. He will be on the alert and guard well the interest of his constituents.

Our old friend, L. Straus, is now engaged in a good business in Los Angeles, Cal. His advertisement is headed "straws show which way the wind blows." We hope some wind may blow much good luck to him.

We learn from the Los Angeles Herald that all of Uncle Sam's land of any value, in Southern California, has been taken up. It occurs to us then, that it is not a good place for a poor man to go to.

The following gentlemen, who composed the old board, have been re-elected Directors of the Iron Wagon Manufacturing Co. for the current year: J. P. Y. Whitfield, Chiles T. Barker, F. P. Gracey, J. J. Garrett, B. W. Macrae.

The combined capital of the Rothschilds is now said to be three billion four hundred million dollars. The management of so much, it strikes us, would be sufficient to make a dozen men poor.

A POSTAL car has been placed on the Louisville and Memphis road by the Post-office Department. This car will run from Louisville and Milan, and will make daily trips.

It is stated that the canon balls with which, in part, Old Hickory won the battle of New Orleans, were made by Montgomery Bell, in Dickson county, Tenn.

A LARGE number of substantial tobacco buyers are to be found in our tobacco exchange every sale day.

CLASS-MEETING at the residence of R. H. Pickering next Tuesday night.

"OLD RELIABLE."—The first number of the new volume of the American Farmer, for 1876 is received, and is a capital one in every respect. The mass of practical information in every branch of agriculture, in this single number, is worth far more to any inquiring farmer who is anxious to improve his land and his condition, than the year's subscription. Space cannot be spared to enumerate the various papers offered in this initial number of the year; but the reports from the agricultural club and other meetings, of successful modes of farming, will be found of peculiar interest—coming as they do from well known practical farmers and horticulturists. The number of correspondents of this old journal, as shown in the copy before us, is very large, and includes letters from France and Germany, and from many of our own States, all giving the most improved methods of farming within their bounds. Published by Samuel Sands & Son, Baltimore, Md., at $1.50 per annum, or $1 for club of five or more. Specimen number will be forwarded when requested.

FATAL SHOOTING.—On Monday night last Charles Webb (col.) was shot and killed by George Woods, on the corner of Strawberry alley and the Square. Webb was shot in the right breast, just below the collar bone, and lived about half an hour after being shot. It is alleged that the shooting was done in self-defense. At this writing the case is being tried before Judge Tyler, on a writ of habeas corpus.

JOHN K. SMITH, Tobacco Broker, in this city, is fully posted in regard to our leading staple, and will fill all orders entrusted to him with promptness and fidelity. He refers to tobacco dealers in this city, Hopkinsville, Louisville, New Orleans and New York, at the latter city he was engaged in the business for a great while.

DON'T FORGET that on Saturday, Jan. 22, we will commence selling our stock of clothing at auction.

BLANTON & RANKIN.

A LETTER to S. A. Caldwell, Esq., of this city, gives the particulars of the death of his brother, James T. Caldwell, who died at Deshay City, Ark., on the 7th of November, 1875, of swamp fever. He was well known and had many friends in this section of country.

C. C. EVERETT has removed his stock of Confectioneries, etc., to the stand recently occupied by Post-office. He would be pleased to see his friends and the public generally.

NOTICE.—We will begin closing out our large Stock of Clothing at Auction, Saturday, January 22d.

BLANTON & RANKIN.

The debt of New Orleans is $21,000,000. Its citizens can not pay it, and are trying to compromise with their creditors at sixty cents on the dollar.

T. P. CRUTCHER and his son Willie, who are representing the interests of Rosebank Nurseries, Nashville, Tenn., is now in our midst soliciting orders for fruit trees, evergreens, shrubbery, etc., to be delivered the latter part of February. Orders left at this office or the livery stable of Caldwell & Shelton, will be promptly attended to.

Happy connections.—Pitman & Lewis' clothing business with the first Centennial! Remember they sell good goods cheap—and that's the place to buy your clothing.

The selection of the Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar for United States senator by the Democrats of Mississippi is at once a guarantee to the State, and to the country at large. Mr. Morton's malignity will hardly be able to keep the liberal statesman out of his seat. Col. Lamar is the embodiment of the centennial spirit, a representative of progress, reconciliation and peace in the most substantial forms. An orator of the first class, a writer of unusual breadth and depth, a ready and trained debater, he will carry Mississippi back to her old place as a leader in national councils. That such a man should be the pick of the Mississippians upon the occasion of their assumption of responsible self-government is another indication of the temper of the South. It is the Republican party that is unrelenting, that learns nothing and forgets nothing.—Courier Journal.

The vital statistics of the city of New York for 1875, do not show much vitality in Gotham. The deaths number 39,674, and the births 23,813. At this rate, without any immigration, it would not take very long to make New York a city of the dead, or a dead city.

AN ACROSTIC.

I love indeed or worth to read,
View now her smiles and her sweet
Imparting light, while this I write,
Each charm in her I trace.
Delighting all who on her call,
Unsatiate one-of the thing I sing;
Keeping the way, which leads to-day,
Earth with her praises ring.
NEW YEAR.
